

MATT SHAHEEN

Representative Shaheen wrote 12 anti-LGBTQ bills during his time in the Legislature, including bills that stop schools and city councils from fighting discrimination. He opposes marriage equality, has called pro-LGBTQ rights organizations a “travelling roadshow,” and falsely claims that anti-discrimination laws endanger women and children.

They Said What?!

[Audio] Shaheen called gay and trans rights organizations a “travelling roadshow” that went from school board to school board threatening ramifications if students couldn’t use the bathroom that matched their gender. Matt Shaheen, Point of View Talk Radio, [4/23/18]

[Audio] Shaheen claimed his bill banning local governments from passing inclusive bathroom laws was to protect “the safety and privacy of women.” Matt Shaheen, Point of View Talk Radio, [4/23/18]

JEFF LEACH

Representative Leach has authored, co-authored, or co-sponsored 22 bills fighting against marriage equality and non-discrimination laws. He’s worked with prominent anti-LGBTQ groups and praised discriminatory laws. As chair of the Judiciary and Civil Jurisprudence committee, he killed pro-LGBTQ bills, including one that would have removed the requirement that sex education teach Texas children that “homosexual conduct” is a criminal offense.

They Said What?!

STEVE ALLISON

Representative Allison has only spent one session in the State House, but didn't waste any time co-sponsoring and voting for legislation to protect discriminatory businesses in Texas.

Bills

Co-sponsored a bill to:

- ✓ Stop local governments from banning discriminatory businesses [SB 1978]

Voted to:

- ✓ Stop local governments from banning discriminatory businesses [SB 1978]

Positions

Strongly agreed “governments should not discriminate against individuals, organizations or small businesses because of their belief that marriage is only a union of one man and one woman.” Texas Values Action Questionnaire, accessed [6/04/20]

Disagreed “that people should be allowed to use public restrooms, showers, and changing rooms based on ‘gender identity.’” Texas Values Action Questionnaire, accessed [6/04/20]

i Texas Values Opposed Marriage Equality In Texas. According to Texas Values, “Our Texas Constitution, supported by 76% of Texas voters, defines marriage as between one man and one woman. Despite this overwhelming support, efforts to radically change the definition of marriage continue to grow. Activists judges, out of touch elected officials, and unaccountable bureaucrats seek to undermine the clear will of the people and subvert the Texas Constitution.” Marriage & Family; Texas Values, accessed [4/21/20]

ii Eagle Forum On Marriage Equality: “We Oppose Same-Sex Marriages.” According to Eagle Forum, “We oppose same-sex marriages, tax-funded abortions and drafting our daughters into military combat.” Brochure; Eagle Forum, accessed [6/5/20]

iii Advocate: The Koch’s Funded ALEC, A Group That “Strongly Opposed LGBTQ Equality.” According to the Advocate, “David and Charles Koch, two of four brothers, have been the primary leaders of Wichita, Kan.–based Koch Industries, a company they inherited from their father and expanded beyond its roots in oil refining to encompass consumer goods and more. They have used their considerable fortune to back conservative and libertarian causes and candidates, with the Times estimating they have spent at least $100 million and possibly much more in this effort since the 1970s. [...] They also have funded the American Legislative Exchange Council, known by the acronym ALEC, a conservative group that drafts model legislation for states with the goals of cutting taxes, opposing gun restrictions, weakening labor unions, and repealing regulations on business. In addition, ALEC has drafted many laws criminalizing HIV exposure and, at least in its early years, strongly opposed LGBTQ equality. Recently it has teamed up with the anti-LGBTQ Alliance Defending Freedom to promote legislation that supposedly supports free speech on college campuses but would provide no protections for those who demonstrate against campus speakers, according to the Center for Media and Democracy.” Advocate, [8/23/19]

iv November 2018: Cathie Adams Was The International Issues Chairwoman For The Eagle Forum. According to Texas GOP Vote, “Cathie Adams currently serves as the ‘International Issues’ chairman for Eagle Forum and on the board of the national Eagle Forum. She previously served five years as president of the Dallas Eagle Forum and 16 years as president of the Texas Eagle Forum, until being elected chairman of the Republican Party of Texas in 2009. She was named by Campaigns and Elections magazine’s August 2010 issue as one of the top 50 Republican influencers in Texas.” Texas GOP Vote, [11/19/18]

v Human Rights Campaign: “The Group Is Well Known For Their Far-Right Policies But We Now Know Their History Is Also Rooted In Demonizing LGBT Americans.” According to the Human Rights Campaign, “ALEC is an organization with a long history of pushing harmful bills on legislatures across the country,’ said Sarah Warbelow, Human Rights Campaign State Legislative Director.’ The group is well known for their far-right policies but we now know their history is also rooted in demonizing LGBT Americans. There is a reason that ALEC has struggled in recent years – their vision is no longer one that resonates with mainstream Americans of either party.” Human Rights Campaign Press Release: “Far Right Organization Has Long Anti-Gay History,” [12/4/13]
