Cameron Supported A Lawsuit Challenging Pennsylvania's Mail-In Ballots In The 2020 Election

CAMERON SUPPORTED A LAWSUIT CHALLENGING PENNSYLVANIA'S MAIL-IN BALLOTS IN THE 2020 ELECTION

2020: Cameron Joined An Amicus Brief Supporting A Lawsuit Challenging Pennsylvania's Mail-In Ballots. According to the Louisville Courier-Journal, "Two days after former Vice President Joe Biden was declared the winner of the 2020 presidential election, Kentucky Attorney General Daniel Cameron joined other Republican AGs Monday in a lawsuit challenging mail-in ballots in Pennsylvania. Cameron signed an amicus brief supporting the Pennsylvania Republican Party's lawsuit against the state Supreme Court's decision last month to allow mail-in ballots that were postmarked by Election Day to be counted if they arrived in the mail by the following Friday." ## Cameron Embraced Trump After The January 6 Insurrection

CAMERON EMBRACED TRUMP

October 2022: Cameron Accepted Trump's Endorsement

October 2022: Cameron Thanked Trump For His Endorsement. According to Cameron's Twitter, "Thank you 45 for your continued support of our campaign for Governor! Your 'Complete and Total Endorsement' is proof that this campaign has what it takes to build a coalition that not only wins the primary, but also the general election! #CameronforGovernor" Twitter, @DanielCameronAG, [1/10/22]

2022: Cameron Endorsed Trump

2022: Cameron: "I Support Donald Trump" In The Republican Primary. According to the Louisville Courier-Journal, "Attorney General Daniel Cameron, the only Republican in a crowded 2023 primary for governor who has the endorsement of former President Donald Trump, returned the favor Tuesday when he told reporters he supports the ex-president's 2024 campaign to return to the White House. His endorsement came a couple of weeks after the U.S. House of Representatives committee that investigated the Jan. 6, 2021 attack on the U.S. Capitol recommended the Justice Department bring criminal charges against Trump for his actions related to that insurrection. 'Yes, I support Donald Trump in the (Republican) primary,' Cameron said, though he noted GOP voters across the country will determine who their party's eventual nominee for president that year will be and made it clear he'll support whoever that nominee is."
