

DON WILLETT AND CONSERVATIVE BIASES

Highlights:

- Don Willett boasted about his conservative judicial bias.

Willett Boasted About His Conservative Judicial Bias

WILLETT BOASTED ABOUT HIS CONSERVATIVE JUDICIAL BIAS

Willett: “I’m Universally Regarded To Be The Most Conservative Member Of The Court, Which Is A Label That I Accept With, Frankly, Gladness And Gusto”

Willett: “I’m Universally Regarded To Be The Most Conservative Member Of The Court, Which Is A Label That I Accept With, Frankly, Gladness And Gusto.” According to the Daily Beast, “Willett himself has boasted in 2012 that ‘I’ve built a record that is widely described – well, universally described—as the most conservative of anybody on the [Texas] Supreme Court. I’ve garnered support from every corner of the conservative movement. There’s no ideological daylight to the right of me... I’m universally regarded to be the most conservative member of the court, which is a label that I accept with, frankly, gladness and gusto.’” Daily Beast, [11/16/17]

Willett: “There’s No Ideological Daylight To The Right Of Me”

Willett: “There’s No Ideological Daylight To The Right Of Me.” According to the Daily Beast, “Willett himself has boasted in 2012 that ‘I’ve built a record that is widely described – well, universally described—as the most conservative of anybody on the [Texas] Supreme Court. I’ve garnered support from every corner of the conservative movement. There’s no ideological daylight to the right of me... I’m universally regarded to be the most conservative member of the court, which is a label that I accept with, frankly, gladness and gusto.’” Daily Beast, [11/16/17]

Willett: “I’ve Garnered Support From Every Corner Of The Conservative Movement”

Willett: “I’ve Garnered Support From Every Corner Of The Conservative Movement.” According to the Daily Beast, “I’ve garnered support from every corner of the conservative movement.” Daily Beast, [11/16/17]